CPAD Chinese New Year Party Celebration

The Chinese New Year party for CPAD (Chinese Parent Association for the Disabled) was a great success! Special guests included State Assembly Member Ed Chau and Congresswoman Judy Chu. During the celebration, the karaoke group led by Abel Lam sang "Gong Xi Gong Xi" and "Welcome guests." The CPAD Rainbow dancers performed a "jazz dance" that received a lot of acclaim from the audience. There was also exciting news about the development of the CPAD recreational center. There were actually a lot of "piggy banks" on each table that accepted donations for the development of the center. Finally, there was a raffle filled with toys, gifts, and fun. Once again, the Chinese New Year Celebration was a great party for everyone involved at CPAD!

The 2019 conference held on March 8-9 at Disney’s Grand Californian Hotel & Spa in Anaheim, California. The theme of this conference, “Transitions,” emphasizes transitioning from school to college, from college to employment, from childhood to independent living, from job to job, and from job to retirement. The conference also provides information on resources, services, education, and advocacy for consumers and families, service providers, students, educators, and public policy makers.

CPAD very early on was invited to attend APDIA’s conference and perform. But many families did not show much interest in attending due to other commitments. In the end, it was under CPAD Chairwoman Vanda’s encouragement and motivation that CPAD was able to come together as a group to attend the conference. Thank you so much, Vanda, for giving our families the rare opportunity to travel to the Disneyland hotel resort and display our children’s talents. For me personally, Vanda was a great source of encouragement that helped me confidently go onstage and introduce our organization and its various activities to audience. Thanks to her, the children and I were able to fully interact and learn much from such a fulfilling experience.

– Li Lee

Li Lee and Vanda Yung both were presenters in the Panels. Li’s session was “Social Recreation – Dance, Music, Sports – for Disabilities” Vanda’s session was “Understanding and Connecting with Different API Communities with Disabilities”

3/16/2019 CPAD OC Chapter – A potluck and fun event. More than 20 families got together to sample the results of each other’s culinary talent. We chatted, exchanged ideas, encouraged each other and comforted each other. We ate. We sang. We danced with abandonment. Most encouraging were the delicious desserts baked by two of our children. So, it’s been decided that they will be providing the desserts for our future meetings! What a wonderful get-together.

特別感謝 Special Thanks
